

Biden: A Democrat Sexist and Racist

Biden, on national television, emphatically stated that he will nominate a black woman to the US Supreme Court to replace retiring Stephen Breyer.

In response to Biden's announcement, the media has concentrated their coverage on which black women will be considered. They have not zeroed in on two specific words - "black" and "woman."

Although Biden stated he will determine who would be the most qualified, by stating that he will nominate a black woman to replace Breyer excludes all men, and all women who are not black. Essentially, he is being sexist and racist.

Senator Patricia Murray (Wash) and other democrats in Congress have pledged support to Biden's announcement.

The problem is that Biden and these supporters are not going to be looking for the BEST qualified candidate. By using the parameters of sex and race, the Democrats are violating the civil rights law by their overt discrimination.

Biden and those who support his bias should be called out for what they are – Sexists and Racists. The media would have done this if the president were conservative.

True journalism reports the facts but does not drive the narrative whether liberal or conservative.
