

Dual Citizenship

by
Phil Rasmussen

Many people have commented on the death of Colin Powell. The one distinguishing character trait of Colin Powell that has stood out was his patriotism to the United States and its people.

The media and the left today will have you thinking that patriotism is out of style. Yet it is not out of style. In fact patriotism is rooted deeply in the American psychic and is surfacing in the face of chaos within our economy, education, political environment, and religion. The awakening of patriotism was clearly demonstrated in the recent Virginia and New Jersey elections. The left is dissolving into an array of dysfunction brought about by its socialist/communist/tyrannical members.

The media needs to stop its prostituting actions. It needs to stop lying in bed, fornicating with all political parties. It needs to return to being a patriotic representative for the American public and stop its political hyperbola and simply present the facts without trying to sway the people one way or another. That is what a “free press” in the First Amendment means. It is different than free speech that is granted to the people.

We are a nation bound by a series of laws, a nation, under law, where elected officials are expected to carry out the rule of law, and where its citizens are expected to follow the rules. This is what citizenship means.

In a patriotic America, citizenship should not be taken lightly. It is serious and failure to become involved in your citizenship rights can lead to imprisoning your mind, body, and soul.

But American citizenship does not exist in a vacuum. Most of us do not realize it, but we actually have dual citizenship.

Our nation was founded on Judeo-Christian principles, incorporated by our Founding Fathers into our Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States of American, and our Bill of Rights. These documents are the basis of your American citizenship.

However, like all people around the world, you are also a citizen of a spiritual world. Regardless of your faith or religious beliefs, there are only two spiritual worlds – that of the kingdom of darkness or that of the Kingdom of God.

If you are a citizen of the kingdom of darkness, then you are opposed to our nation's principles and thus you are denying American citizenship. Since you lack patriotism and faith in our nation, move away to a soulless country.

On the other hand, if you are a citizen in the Kingdom of God, let your patriotism for our nation be visible and protected from those who want to enslave you. Stand up and let your voice be heard for the call to liberty and ringing for the bell of freedom.